Statement Following Supreme Court Decision on COVID-19 Business Interruption losses

Whilst we are currently reviewing the detail of the recent Supreme Court Judgment and will be contacting those who are affected shortly, Policyholders with specified disease cover which sets out an exhaustive list of diseases of which COVID-19 is not named, are not impacted by the judgement.

Specified Disease Wordings are applicable to:

Childminders
Pre School
Out of School
Parent & Toddler
Holiday Play
Group
Sportsafe
Indoor play
Childminder Agency

If your policy is one of these with specified disease cover, we have identified that the outcome of the judgement will not affect the decision made on your claim with Covea Insurance, for the reason that the policy requires it to be by a specified disease. The diseases are listed in the policy wording and this does not include COVID-19.

If you remain dissatisfied with this explanation, your rights to make a complaint or to commence legal proceedings are unaffected. Please contact Covea at the following email address: customer.relations-rdg@coveainsurance.co.uk so that your complaint may be reviewed and addressed.
